

DANVILLE.

Successful Party Given By the 500 Club—Other Occurrences of the Week.

(Mrs. C. W. Bartlett, Correspondent.)

The annual party which is given at the end of each season by the 500 club was held at the library last Thursday evening. A small admission was taken which was given to the Library Association. A very interesting program was given which consisted of mandolin selections by Eleazer Dole with Mrs. C. H. Dole pianist, piano selections by Mrs. L. L. Hardy, vocal solos by Mrs. C. H. Dole, Miss Whittier accompanist, and three very pretty little dances were given by Miss June Waterman of Providence, R. I. At the close of the program 500 was played at several tables and refreshments of sherbet and assorted cake was served.

Miss Christine Hatch went Saturday to Hanover, N. H., where she has entered the Mary Hitchcock hospital to train for a nurse.

Diamond Chapter, No. 14, O. E. S., will hold their regular meeting at the Masonic hall this Wednesday, evening.

E. W. Hunt was at home from Newport for over Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Ball and two children, have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Moore, returned Saturday to their home in Newark.

Miss Annie Steady was at home from St. Johnsbury to spend the Fourth.

Miss Harriett Whittier of Boston came Thursday to spend the summer here at her house.

William Finley lost a valuable work horse last Saturday morning.

Supt. Harvey Burbanks of East Barnet was in town Saturday.

Miss May L. Wilson and Eleazer Dole go this week to Burlington, where they will attend summer school.

Zenas Kittredge spent a few days the latter part of the week with his brother, F. K. Kittredge of Woodsville, N. H.

Mrs. Samuel Anderson and two sons Allen and Joseph Anderson of Revere, Mass., are visiting at Charles Fellows.

Mrs. Jennie Walsh, who has been at North Hampton, Mass., for the past year, is at home for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gilbert of Hardwick spent the Fourth with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Davis.

Mrs. Mary Hartshorn visited relatives at St. Johnsbury last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Henderson visited his brother, David Henderson, and family at St. Johnsbury over Sunday.

Mrs. James Rodgers and daughter Avis of Barre spent the latter part of last week at her sister's, Mrs. A. M. Steele and family.

Mrs. Carr, who has been stopping with her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Peck, is working for Mrs. Walter Davis.

Miss Mabel Barlow of Waltham, Mass., is spending 10 days with her cousin, Mrs. Ernest R. Moore.

Mrs. Stephen Waterman and three children, who have been in town the past four weeks, returned Saturday to their home at Providence, R. I.

Miss Katherine Rodgers has been having a short vacation from her work at Thurber's hotel.

David Labay was at Burlington last week.

Miss Emma Stocker returned the first of the week from Manchester, N. H., where she spent the past two weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. Archie Ainsworth.

Mrs. Archie Ainsworth and two children of Manchester, N. H., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Stocker.

Miss Margery Gray is spending two weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Shattuck, at Bethlehem, N. H.

John Hirst of Montclair, N. J., is a guest at J. E. Tinker's.

Mrs. Asa Sargeant, who has been visiting relatives at St. Paul, Minn., and other western cities, returned home last Friday. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. A. A. Parker, and two children of Carrington, N. D., who will remain for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Sargeant.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Flemming and daughter have returned from St. Johnsbury, where Mr. Flemming has had employment at Fairbanks scale works.

The W. C. T. U. will hold their meeting on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Reynolds. The topic for the meeting will be "Flower Missions."

A communion service will be held at the Congregational church next Sunday morning.

During the month of July the ladies who are working for the relief work will meet at the Congregational church on Wednesday afternoons at 2 P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Davis, Mrs. M. V. B. Dow, Mrs. Asa Wesson and Miss Martha Sargeant left Saturday morning in Mr. Davis' automobile for a several days' trip to the Maine beaches.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vance gave a party at the pavilion at West Danville last week, Tuesday evening. Music was furnished by a Victrola and roller skating and dancing was much enjoyed by the young people.

WEST BARNET.

Claude Somers' Barn Destroyed By Lightning—Personal.

(Theresa C. Blain, Correspondent.)

In the terrible electrical storm which passed over Tuesday Claude Somers' barn was burned. The bolt passed down through the barn in front of the horses. The horses were not hurt, no other live stock being in the barn. Nearly everything was burned, including a nice new buggy, harnesses and wagons.

Lee Somers was at Claude Somers' Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Florin Churchill and family were at James Blain's Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roy were at Boltonville Thursday.

Miss Susie Greenbanks and her mother have gone to Danville to spend a few days, and then they will occupy their cottage at Old Orchard, Me.

Miss Jennie Appleton finished work for Charles Roy last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roy are now working for Mr. Roy.

Merrill Hastie, Herbert Steele and Rev. Mr. Laird were in St. Johnsbury Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hunter have gone to keep house at Mosquitoville.

Miss Olive Shields is keeping house for Owen Abbott.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roy and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roy were in St. Johnsbury Saturday.

Mrs. Fred McLaren, Manard Gammell, Mrs. Geo. Blain and Mrs. James Blain were in St. Johnsbury Saturday.

David Purdy went to North Troy Saturday to join his wife, who is there visiting.

EAST HARDWICK.

(Fleeta Hassam, Correspondent.)

Mrs. Clinton Stevens is in poor health.

Mr. Robert Smith died Thursday after an illness of five weeks with bronchial pneumonia. The funeral was held Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Downs from Connecticut have been visiting at Geo. Cook's.

Elwyn Kittredge has gone to Lake Placid, N. Y., where he has employment in a hotel.

Marion Hancock is camping at Caspian Lake.

Clarence Russell was in St. Albans over Sunday.

Dr. Harry Ives is in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Domey and daughter Lillian spent the week-end in St. Albans.

John O'Brien of New York City is in town.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wright and children, Wilma and Edward, of Lyndonville visited friends here over Sunday.

Arlene Albee is in Fairlee.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Rice and children from West Burke visited at Dr. R. J. Harvey's last week.

Frederick Shattuck of Hardwick was at George Lawrence's last week.

Gladys Hassam is taking music lessons of B. Frank Harris of St. Johnsbury.

STANNARD.

(F. K. Bartlett, Correspondent.)

Mrs. Blanche Smith visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, last week.

Charlie Winchester has his new house well started.

Misses Edith, Mabel and Avis Brown visited in Stannard last week returning Friday and enjoying a boat ride on Flag pond.

Mrs. F. K. Bartlett was a visitor at Joe Clark's last week.

Frank Moses visited in Stannard over Sunday.

County Warden William Peck was a caller at L. L. Dezan's Thursday.

Hazen Brown has come home for a short time.

Clyde Smith is working for L. L. Dezan.

Len Dezan is peeling pulp.

Russell Kinnerson is working for Charlie Winchester.

Harrison Winchester is drawing logs to the Hardwick saw mill.

WELLS RIVER.

(Mrs. D. G. Farwell, Correspondent.)

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Buck, Mrs. Kate Lee and Mrs. Robert Paquet motored to Williamstown Gulf Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Shedd and family of Bellows Falls spent the Fourth at the home of Daniel Glynn.

Mrs. Nelson Debois entertained her sister, Mrs. Joseph Goddard of Westfield last week.

Mrs. John Hinman from Newport is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dean Goehy.

Mr. and Mrs. John Peach and son and Mr. and Mrs. Jennie Sheldon spent the holiday at a family reunion at the Sheldon cottage, at Hall's Pond.

About 15 Masons attended the funeral of C. O. Holton at Newbury Monday.

Mrs. Frank Hill and baby returned to Superior, Wis., the last of the week.

Fern Hasilton has spent a week with his mother, Mrs. Meyers, and returned to Springfield, Wednesday.

Hon. David Wilkie left Wednesday for a visit to friends in Canada.

Sgt. W. Henry Munsell, Company K, Vermont Infantry, has left for Eagle Pass, Texas.

Barbara returned Sunday from Brightlook hospital, St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brock and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Woolner and son are camping for a day at Hale's Tavern, July 4th.

KIRBY.

(Mrs. W. P. Russell, Correspondent.)

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kearney from New York City are spending their vacation at Frank Ranney's and calling on old friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Mitchen, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Webber and Wilfred Ketchell spent Sunday at Joe's Pond.

Perley Altes and family from St. Johnsbury were Sunday visitors at his brother Carl's.

W. P. Russell is home from his work on the state highway at Westmore for the month of July.

LUNENBURG.

Large Party of Girls at Camp Winneshauka—Children's Sunday Exercises.

(Mrs. F. F. Balch, Correspondent.)

Forty-five girls are having a glorious time at Camp Winneshauka, coming on Friday and Saturday, and more will follow this week. The instructors are already there, many saddle horses ready for trips with riding master in attendance, two large cars ready to start at any moment, and aquatic sports planned galore. On Sunday Rev. F. D. Tolman, who came with Mrs. Tolman and two young ladies from St. Johnsbury held services which were made most enjoyable by music from Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, Prof. Harlan Wood and Mrs. Wood, who also came over in a car from St. Johnsbury. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Moore and daughter of Lunenburg were also visitors at the camp on Sunday.

Children's Sunday was observed in the Methodist church on Sunday morning. The auditorium was prettily decorated and a good audience listened with pleasure to the following program: Chorus; Scripture reading; choir; prayer; pastor; chorus; recitation; Ruby Colby; song; all the children; recitation; Erma Ball; recitation; Helen Jewell; chorus; recitation; Charlie Hartwell; recitation; Nellie Parker; solo; Dorothy Brown; recitation; Roger Hastings; dialogue; five girls; chorus; recitation; Ames Blood; recitation; Ruth Rowell; song; Helen, Dorothy; Nina Pond; recitation; Frankie Lewis; chorus; recitation; Nellie Kimball; solo; Truman Curtis; recitation; Edith Lewis; chorus; recitation; Clifton Hastings; chorus; recitation; Dorothy Pond; collection and notices; chorus; benediction.

Mrs. Fred Powers, who was called to Manchester, N. H., by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Charles Jordan, returned home on Saturday, leaving her mother slightly better.

Schools closed for the summer vacation last week with picnics in the village and West neighborhood. In the village grammar, Mrs. A. W. Sugg, teacher, the following had no absent or tardy marks during the term: Helen Pond, Dorothy Pond, Truman Curtis, Melvin Curtis, Bernice Ball, Janet Allait, Florence Hartwell, Melvin Wilson, Ella Kimball, Lizzie Kimball, Clara Nichols. These had no marks for the year: Dorothy Pond, Ella Kimball, Truman Curtis, Clara Nichols. In the primary department, Mrs. Martha Pierce, teacher, had no marks for the term: Dorothy Brown, Velma Smith, Charlie Hartwell, Madeline Nichols, Nina Pond, Raymond Kimball, Lillian Kimball, Nellie Kimball, Persis Parker, Evelyn Waterman, Katie Vance. For the year, Mrs. E. A. Farley, teacher, had no marks for the term: Evelyn Waterman, Raymond Kimball, Madeline Nichols had perfect attendance, while Charlie Hartwell has not missed a day for two years the same record being true for Misses Elinor and Marjorie Burt on East Hill, and Royce Lyon at Katherine Drew of the same school.

Miss Ruby Smith, teacher, had perfect attendance for the year.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Wormwood are spending the Fourth in the Brown camp at Neal's Lake, as also are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pierce and Harland Ball and family.

Mr. Bertha LeClair and son, Royce of Pottsville, N. H., are visiting her mother, Mrs. Laura Colby and little Alice, who is quite ill with pleurisy.

W. E. Balch was in St. Johnsbury and Lyndonville looking at the work in the Museum last week.

Messrs. S. C. Smith, Erwin Balch, Martin and Marsh Pond were in St. Johnsbury last week, making the trip in the Smith car.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waterman and family left on Saturday for Littleton, Colorado, on the Lyndonville.

Mrs. Lottie Cole, who has been teaching for the past year in Pittsfield, N. H., has come to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. Homer Stuart.

Alvin Nichols and grandson, Dana, spent two days of last week with his sons, Floris and Madison, in Johnson, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jewell were called here last Friday by the death of their uncle, Caleb Hubbard, who lived in Goffstown, N. H., returning to Concord on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartwell Moore and child of St. Johnsbury visited their uncle G. G. Temple last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Bell and son, Rollo, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Royce, who went in the Bell car to Orford, N. H., on Saturday to remain over the Fourth.

Charles Turner and son, Harold, who went to Fort Smith, Ark., on May 1, returned on Saturday satisfied that Vermont is as good a state as there is in the union, and are more than glad to get home once more.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Snow were in Whitefield on business recently.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church held a pleasant social with Mrs. G. H. Balch at South Lunenburg last Friday.

—C. E. Kirk has sold the C. H. Marshall lot on Pleasant street, Arlington to E. E. Holbrook.

St. Andrews parochial tea will be held this week Thursday at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Arthur Graves, 3 Harvey street.

PEACHAM.

Death of Andrew Whitehill—Personal and Local News.

(Mrs. W. S. Sanborn, Correspondent.)

Mrs. Alice McClary Stevens, daughter of Ira L. McClary, formerly of Peacham, who has lived in Washington, D. C., the past 24 years, has resigned from her position in the Congressional Library and will make her permanent home in Malone, N. Y.

He spent the summer months in her Port Ulster cottage at Lake Titus in the Adirondacks.

In the sudden death of Andrew Whitehill which occurred at his home Thursday, June 22, Peacham loses a highly respected citizen and one who has resided in town for some years.

He was born in Ryegate Sept. 17, 1836, the son of William and Mary (Craig) Whitehill. He lived in Ryegate with Peacham with the exception of four years (1870 to 1874) which were spent in Iowa. He married Carrie J. Martin, daughter of Deacon Moses and Almira Martin, Oct. 3, 1874.

The funeral was held at the home Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. T. A. Carlson, assisted by Rev. J. K. Williams, and was largely attended.

Robert Craig has gone to Hampton, N. H., to take a treatment for his health.

Mrs. Fred Foan and children of St. Johnsbury are visiting at Albert Peck's while Mr. Foan is away on a trip to Montreal.

W. S. Sanborn had a New England telephone installed in his "Pondside" cottage Thursday.

The G. A. R. and W. R. C. will meet at West Barnet Saturday, July 8, at 2 P. M.

Clayton Farrington and family of West Danville visited at G. E. Farrington's Sunday.

Margaret Hooper of North Ryegate is visiting Marion Farrington.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Farrington attended the funeral of Frank Farrington at Walden Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Powers and Harvey are visiting at Lyndonville.

Alma Powers and Emily visited at Willis Brown's part of last week.

Mrs. Nellie Freehart and her father, er, Fred Powers, were at St. Johnsbury Tuesday.

Mrs. James Craig, Doris and James, were at Lyndonville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fuller were at Enosburg Falls recently.

Rev. T. A. Carlson has been at Vergennes. Mr. Pedley had charge of Children's Day was observed at the Congregational church Sunday. The exercises were fine and enjoyed by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dubois and two daughters of Boston are visiting at Mr. Thorpe's.

Word was received of the death of Mrs. Mattie (Graham) Smith, who died in a hospital in Florida.

Mr. Whitehill of Groton, who has been at Phoebe Young's, has gone home.

James Finley of Manchester is at Mrs. Young's.

Mrs. Lewis Dana and son Charles have been visiting at James Young's. Miss Marion Chandler is visiting her father, John Chandler, and family.

Mrs. Ashley Goss of West Danville was a visitor at George Douse's and Alonzo Halcrow's last week.

Mrs. Fred Allen, William and Eva were at St. Johnsbury Tuesday.

Dr. A. J. Mackay and family are visiting at Greenfield, Mass.

Mrs. Bessie Varnum has moved into rooms in Mrs. Ada Blanchard's house.

Ashley Munger and family were at Marshfield Sunday.

George Richardson, who has been sick for some time, is much better.

Miss Laura Rowe, who is in Boston, was operated on recently for appendicitis.

Sandy Ferguson from the west is visiting at John Gracey's.

Miss Jeanette Varnum is home from her school in Massachusetts.

Miss Elsie Choate is visiting at her brother's, C. A. Choate's at West Barnet.

John Gracey, Sandy Ferguson, Mrs. George Darling, Mary Bailey, Mrs. T. A. Carlson were at St. Johnsbury Friday and Anna Renfrew, Blanche Renfrew, Mrs. F. E. Farley and Mrs. Ordway were there Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Hobart of Newbury Center were at E. J. Hobart's Sunday.

Miss Eliza Adams is home from her school.

Mrs. Bellam and son James of Clifton, P. Q., are visiting her brother, Herbert Blair.

WEST WATERFORD.

(Mrs. E. A. Blodgett, Correspondent.)

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Parks had friends recently visiting them.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cutting, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hovey went Thursday to Warden pond fishing.

Mrs. Emily Hovey returned home last week after visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. F. Beck.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Cushman had friends visiting Wednesday.

The people from this neighborhood went Tuesday to St. Johnsbury to see the street parade.

Mrs. G. W. Hovey and children visited Saturday at St. Johnsbury.

CONCORD.

The social committee at the Universalist church for July is: Mrs. Jacob Richardson, Jr., Miss Louise Chapman, Mrs. W. D. Chaplin, Mrs. H. A. Quimby, Mrs. Harry Hutchinson, Mrs. Ellen Seales.

The entertainment committee at the Methodist church for the month of July is: Misses Margaret Hull, Florence Hodgdon, Rose Rook.

Mrs. Arthur Streeter and sons, Arnie and Bernard, of St. Johnsbury are spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Raymond, and Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Streeter.

Mrs. W. P. Streeter is visiting relatives in Danville.

Florence and Reginald Hodgdon are visiting relatives in Granby.

Dennis Stanley went to Portland Saturday to spend several days.

Mrs. B. B. Burbank and daughters, Marion, Belle and Hulda, went to their camp, Minneartee, at Neal's Pond, Lunenburg, Saturday to be absent several weeks. Evelyn Brown accompanied them for a few days.

Mrs. Clarence Cutting and son Murray were in Groveton, N. H., Saturday, guests of their aunt, Mrs. Florence E. Matthews.

Mrs. F. F. Reed and Paul Leonard of St. Johnsbury were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Cutting from Saturday until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Tatro arrived Sunday from Chicago to spend the summer at Green Mountain Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Millmore of Portland, Me., were over Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Miltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Willis and son Lloyd of St. Johnsbury were in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jewell and daughter Helen of Lunenburg were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elden Jewell the past week.

Miss Minnie Jewell is at work for Ralph Hartshorn.

Mrs. George Emery was called to Lunenburg the last of the week by the illness of Mrs. Will Hendrick.

Thomas Briggs was in Fitzdale the last of the week, called there by the illness of his sister, Mrs. Woods.

Mrs. John McGinnis of Whitefield, N. H., is visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. Allen Hodgdon.

Mrs. Edith Lewis is visiting her mother, Mrs. Frank Jock.

Ariel Cobleigh was in St. Johnsbury one day last week, a guest of Thelma Williamson.

Miss Esther Lee is very ill at the home of Mrs. Emma Quimby.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gero of St. Johnsbury were in town Sunday.

Mrs. Mabel Guild Hall of Charles-town, N. H., has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Pratt.

Mrs. William True is at Andover, a guest of her niece, Mrs. Kate McAllister.

John McKenzie from Bishop's Crossing, P. Q., is a guest of his daughter, Mrs. Robert Williams. Mr. McKenzie goes from here to Worcester, Mass., to visit his sister.